MODELING COMPETITION

1. No hats or props will be allowed for any Cinderella girl Modeling. Cinderella is NOT a "fashion clothing show." Flaunting an overly expensive wardrobe is not what we look for. Clothes must be age appropriate. We look for a natural, unaffected, wholesome, polite, personable girl to represent our program.
2. Cinderella is not a modeling competition; however, party dress and casualwear presentations give a girl the opportunity to demonstrate her poise, confidence, grace and ability to follow directions. Judges are advised to note girls should move to the paced modeling music when the "dings" indicate her to continue to the next place on stage. Each modeling presentation starts and ends with a "harp sweep." During casualwear, each girl will introduce herself by giving her name, age and hometown at the second "x". Teen and Arizona Woman participants give an in-depth self-introduction, including their interests, aspirations, accomplishments, etc. Check with your local director for modeling workshops in your area as well as what to say during casualwear introductions.
